Client: D & K drost consult, Hamburg

Year: 2009

Location: Hamburg, Germany

Brief Description:

The City of Hamburg, represented by Bezirksamt Hamburg-Mitte, invited potential investors to a competition regarding the modernization and renovation of Hamburg's largest open-air-skating rink. Three of them reached the final round.

Wenzel Consulting was commissioned to advise the jury as an expert. Task was to evaluate the different concepts of the selected teams concerning their attractiveness and profitability.

Tasks:

- Preparation of and attendance at the preliminary discussion of the pre-audit
- Rough check of the three concepts (plausibility, economy and sustainability)
- Preparation and attendance at the jury
